

Learn how to

Craft leather into beautiful, traditional items - the Lakota/Dakota way!

Attend a three-day workshop:

Tuesday, March 4th through Thursday, March 6th
at the Sitting Bull College Bear Soldier Campus in McLaughlin, SD.

Teacher: D. Joyce Kitson, professional Lakota-Hidatsa
hide tanner/beadworker/quillworker

Each participant will be given all materials needed to make a beaded knife sheath. Traditional materials will be used such as: bison rawhide, smoked brain-tanned buckskin, deer sinew thread, old-time symbols/designs, and rich, old-time color beads.

Registration is limited to about 10 participants, so please call early and reserve your seat.

Fees: This program is provided at NO cost to participants.

Hours: We will start around 9 AM and end about 4 PM all three days.

Extra Lesson at noon on Thursday: "Product Pricing" by Jonathon Anderson, TBIC Director

Meals & refreshments: These will be provided each day.

Sponsor: Sitting Bull College

This program is paid for by a grant from the U S Department of Agriculture

Please Contact us to let us know you are coming. Call Sybil Taken Alive, or Rick DeLoughery, Bison Education Coordinator, Sitting Bull College, Bear Soldier Campus, McLaughlin; 605-823-4318. Or email: rickd@sbc.edu

Continuing Education Units: 1.4, Certificate of completion.

This is an example from another person.