Sitting Bull College students who have a complaint against the college (SBC) must follow the guidance provided by Standing Rock Sioux Tribe Resolution No. 223-14 which states:

“WHEREAS, the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe does not currently have policies and procedures that allow the Tribe to handle complaints against the College or other Tribally Chartered entities and has instead, required the Tribally Chartered entities to develop their own internal policies and procedures to process complaints against the College or other entities; and

WHEREAS, the College has met with the Health, Education and Welfare [HEW] Committee and has provided the HEW Committee with the College’s own policies and procedures that govern the handling complaints against the College and is satisfied that the College has the ability to carry out the requirements of Federal Law; and

WHEREAS, the College has agreed to provide, on an annual basis, a report to the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe which will include all statistics on student complaints that are handled by the College [number, gender, type of complaint, complaint resolution, with no specific student identifiers] and that this information shall be maintained in the office of the Tribal Education Department.

“NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe does hereby delegate in authority to review complaints and process concerns about the Sitting Bull College to the College to handle and facilitate all complaints and other concerns pursuant to its own internal policies and procedures of the Sitting Bull College”.

To file a complaint, students must follow the Student Appeals Board Student Code of Conduct policy listed in the Sitting Bull College Bulletin.
